

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We would like to acknowledge the work so the many people who worked to produce this report. Coming from a range of different organisations they worked together as a team to represent Australia at these meetings.

Some of them wrote papers, some did research, some travelled to Geneva and advocated with UNHCR, Governments and other organisations. All of them gave time in a voluntary capacity because of their commitment to the rights of refugees.

It was this combined work which make the Australian input so successful.
